SUCCESSFUL RECIPE

PHOTO BY RON SPOONER

Das Village Haus restaurant in Alexandria Bay offered a summer opportunity to two students entering their fourth year at Paul Smith's College culinary arts program to gain practical experience. Joshua Johnston, Alexandria Bay, and Jonathan LaClair, Hermon, were able to apply their learned experiences and acquired new skills from the restaurant's internationally-focused menu and European-oriented operations, while working with Yvonne Bauman, restaurant owner and degree-holder in restaurant management from Switzerland. From left, on top, are Mr. LaClair and Mr. Johnston. On bottom are Ms. Bauman and the restaurant's executive chef Phillip Popiwny.
