

"Wonderful Little Gem in a busy town"

Das Village Haus

NYMom_of_2A 5 contributions

Long Island, NY

We spent the day in

Alexandria Bay on Saturday of Labor Day weekend. After a boat tour of the islands and local castles, we promised our 12 year old daughter that she could select the restaurant for dinner. She had her heart and tastebuds set on salmon. We checked the menus of a few of the busy places with diners out on the patios and we feared the usually overpriced, low quality food typical of touristy towns. But we liked the look of Das Village Haus - and by providence - salmon was on the menu. The staff was attentive and the food was fabulous. The cream of potato/bacon soup was savory and just the right consistency. I had veal - wonderful and tender. My husband had a perfectly done steak with a great peppery rub, my son had shrimp cocktail as his meal with the soup, and my daughter had the salmon. She declared it to be the best meal of our vacation - I had to agree.

Just a nice sweet restaurant with high quality food and service - surrounded by what I suspect to be mediocrity of the other high volume bar crowd bistros in this touristy town.

Submitted on 09/07/09 at 10:00 AM EDT. This review is the property of TripAdvisor and is not to be reproduced without the permission of TripAdvisor. © 2009 TripAdvisor LLC

About TripAdvisor®

TripAdvisor™ provides impartial traveler reviews of Das Village Haus, Alexandria Bay, New York.

Learn more about TripAdvisor, how we help you find the best travel deals, and how you can help us improve our service.

© 2009 TripAdvisor LLC All rights reserved. TripAdvisor Terms of Use and Privacy Policy.

* TripAdvisor LLC is not a booking agent and does not charge any service fees to users of our site... \(more\)

TripAdvisor LLC is not responsible for content on external web sites. Taxes, fees not included for deals content.

Certain content on this page is Copyright © 2009 Northstar Travel Media, LLC